

Joseph Fung

President/CEO, Lewis Media

In his role as President and CEO of Lewis Media, a company he helped found in 2001 while studying Computer Engineering at the University of Waterloo, Joseph Fung provides leadership and vision for the entire Lewis Media team.

Joseph is recognized in Waterloo Region as a passionate leader in online communities and within the web development industry. Joseph combines an unbridled enthusiasm for life with exceptional technical acumen; he is one of two founding developers of the open source Simple Machines Forum project and was one of the key individuals behind Lewis Media's Bistro platform which has contributed greatly to the company's success.

With experience in a variety of industries, countries and not-for-profit sectors, Joseph has acquired key clients such as the University of Waterloo, ScotiaBank and SlipStream Data while maintaining exceptional client satisfaction with small local businesses, universities, and professional sports franchises.

Identified as much for his "More Fun = More Good" policy as he is for his technical expertise, Joseph is frequently invited to speak on Internet Technology, Entrepreneurship and related topics. As an industry and technological leader, he has been able to attract top talent for key positions and software developers and his zeal for entrepreneurship has been recognized by the CIBC Canadian SEOY award in 2005, and a nomination for the 2006 Young Entrepreneur of the Year Award of the Greater KW Chamber of Commerce.

This background combined with his own youthful perspective has made Joseph a staunch supporter of Youth, Entrepreneurship and good Corporate Citizenship as demonstrated through mentorship of university and college students, corporate sponsorship of local not-for-profit organizations, and frequent volunteer efforts.

Joseph's history of community and corporate leadership also includes Director of Canadian Federation of Engineering Students, Project Manager of Simple Machines Forum, Co-founder of OnMyBlock.ca Ltd., and participant in and supporter of Leadership Waterloo Region
